WHAT'S IT TO YOU, THIBAULT?
I'M NOT PLAYING ON ANY TEAM WITH A GIRL!

THAT'S THE FIRST TIME IN MY LIFE I'VE BEEN THREATENED WITH A SHREDDING!
PEANUTS
SIR, IF MR. THIBAULT DOESN'T WANT ME TO PLAY, MAYBE I SHOULDN'T...
I'LL SAY YOU SHOULDN'T! BASEBALL IS A BOY'S GAME! YOU'RE JUST A STUPID GIRL!
WHY DON'T YOU GO HOME?!
I CAN'T GO HOME, MR. THIBAULT, BECAUSE I'D BE ALL ALONE...
MY DAD IS OUT OF TOWN, AND MY MOTHER IS AT HER OFFICE DESIGNING A NEW FREEWAY!

WHO'S WHO SELECTED

The 1983 edition of WHO'S WHO AMONG STUDENTS IN AMERICAN UNIVERSITIES AND COLLEGES will carry the names of 26 students from Graceland College, who have been selected as being among the country's most outstanding campus leaders.

Campus nominating committees and editors of the annual directory have included the names of these students based on their academic achievement, service to the community, leadership in extracurricular activities and future potential.

They join an elite group of students selected from more than 1,300 institutions of higher learning in all 50 states, the District of Columbia and several foreign nations. Outstanding students have been honored in the annual directory since it was first published in 1934.

Students named this year from Graceland College are: Kenneth Alan Ballew, Denise Rene Beavers, Linda Marie Brandt, Kathleen G. Clothier, Mary Elizabeth Cochran, Daniel Allan Esch, Susan Lynn Freeman, Susan Colleen Galbraith, James Jacob Goodson, Michelle Marie Hampton, Lisa Margaret Hansen, Ann Marie Klingensmith, David Scott Nevill, Joseph Fredrick Postnikoff, Melissa Kae Postnikoff, Rebecca Ruth Ramsey, Brenda Sue Reichard, Jones Williamson Roach, Jr., Rudella Louise Shaw, Christopher Durane Stone, Christine Jo Tripp, Karen Eileen Troeh, Stuart David Waite, Robert James Watt, Clint Lee Woods, Dee Ann Parson.

Shutts Places Again

Cindy Shutts placed fifth in novice impromptu at the 36th annual L.E. Norton Individual Events tournament hosted by Bradley University. She thus repeated her earlier qualification in the event at the University of Nabraska-Omaha in October.

This is Shutts' first year in the event. Impromptu topics at Bradley were thought provoking questions. The final round topic was excerpted from the movie "Arthur:" "Fish must get awfully tired of seafood." As soon as Shutts heard the topic the judges started to clock. She had seven minutes to finish.

The three judges in finals spread their scores over a considerable range. While one in particular was unimpressed, ranking her sixth, the others ranked her first and third. The judge who ranked her first also awarded her perfect quality points.

Because the judges' scores were spread so unevenly, Shutts actually finished in a tie for third place with two students from the University of Iowa. A tiebreaking procedure broke the deadlock and ranked her fifth.

Graceland's next tournament is Sat., Dec. 4 at Missouri Western State College. That will be the final tournament of the fall semester.

Yager/Shutts Qualilfy For Nationals

Graceland qualified students in three more slots for the National Forensic Association Championships last weekend at the 28th annual University of Nebraska at Omaha Kick-Off Forensics Tournament. Junior Ron Yager reached final rounds in both extemporaneous and impromptu speaking. Joining Yager in impromptu finals was Sophomore Cindy Shutts.

Yager's double qualification marks the first time he has reached the final round of two events at a collge tournament. It's also the first time this season any Graceland student has accomplished this feat. He finished the tournament in fifth place in extemp and sixth in impromptu. Shutts finished seventh in impromptu in her fist tournament as a Yellowjacket. It was also her first exposure to judges in the Midwest, though she came to Graceland with a year of experience at Parkersburg, (W.V.) Community College Parkersburg field a very competitive squad in the Mid-East. Shuuts also competed in dramatic interpretation.

Graceland's next tournament is Saturday, October 23, when the Yellowjackets host the fourth annual Yellowjacket Swarmup. The tournament features extemp, informative, and after dinner speaking; communication analysis; and prose and dramatic interpretation. All rounds are open to the public free of charge. A schedule will be posted in the Shaw Center Lobby Saturday morning.

Gritt's Gripes

by Mark Grittner

What's wrong with Graceland? Too many of us walk around in our protected worlds and think we have it made. But contrary to popular belief, Graceland is not Utopia. One day I was feeling particularly happy and sat wondering what I could do to relieve myself of that disgusting, obnoxious feeling. Come, come you hate it as much as I. We all hate that happy person who comes whistling into the shower at 7:30 a.m. and shouts a resounding "Good Morning." It's about time we do something to protect ourselves from these pseudo-enlightenists. In pursuit of that timeless goal, I have come up with a list of things that are wrong with Graceland College. Please hang this list in a conspicious place where those repeat offenders will read it before they unleash their jovial fury upon us. It ought to calm them down. Not to waste any more time!

The Common food lacks.
The heaters clank, whistle, band, and produce just about any other noise on God's green Earth.
We have too many rapists on campus. (Evidence by continued use of keycards)
Every male is a potential flasher unless he is rich enough to afford his own curtains.
Too many pot-holes in the sidewalks. Some are bottomless.
The worst ones are in places where the least light is.
The air smells on Tuesday and Thursdays.
The shoe in the door policy.
Mariane Kilpack is too tough on us.
The TOWER is too conservative.
Too many burn-outs, stoners, druggies, alcoholics and moral degenerates on campus.
Too many do-gooders on campus.
It costs too much to do wash and the dryers don't work in the first place.
There are no candy or pop machines in the Library.
No pencil sharpeners in Briggs.
Parking spots limited (President Hanna parks in handicapped parking)
Tuition is too high.
Winter is too cold.
All the maps in Briggs are way-outdated (little known fact).
You can't buy anything from Graceland which doesn't have the Tower plastered all over it.
We can't beat William Jewell in anything.

If you would like to contribute to this continuing series, address your complaints to: "What's Wrong With Graceland College?" Committee for the prevention of pseudo-enlightenists. Box 343.

Graceland might not be the greatest but have you heard...

Paloma is a wonderful place,

WHY SHOULD I PLAY????

It's fun to play!!

Get to know people around campus

Win GREAT PRIZES!!!

SO YOU WANT TO PLAY

Come to the organizational meeting, Monday, March 5, 1984 at 5:30 in the America's Room. Bring $2-$3 for gun and picture. You must attend this meeting to play the game. If you cannot come, contact Dean Gibson or Jeff Naylor at Faunce, 5394 before Monday.

HOW TO PLAY

OBJECTIVE : To assassinate your designated victims and avoid being assassinated until you are the only one left ALIVE!!!!

METHOD :

1. Each person is armed with a gun.

2. Each person will be given a picture of their victim.

3.
   a. You try to "kill" your victim(person on photo). A "kill" constitutes hitting a victim with a dart below the head. A shot to the head is a "NO-HIT".

      1. say the victims first(or common) name.
      2. show the victim the picture you are carrying

The Kansas City Star, Monday, April 2, 1984

RLDS Church leaders seek fewer conferences

Delegates to vote on an interval of 4 years, rather than 2

Dates to the World Conferencere to spend this morning discing a plan proposed by top rch leaders to hold the conince at four-year intervals formal decision by the 2,8oting delegates is scheduler Tuesday.

delegates expect the mre to pass because the che has been endorsed by R Church President Wallace Bith and his two counselors.

If approved, the next World Conference would be April 10-18, 1988, in Independence.

Tom Noffsinger, commissioner of program development, says a survey of church leaders found that the two-year conference is "preferred, but not necessary."

Church leaders primarily recommended the change because of the costs associated with holding a World Conference every two years.

Mr. Noffsinger said it costs the national church more than $1.2 million to hold a World Conference. Voting delegates spend another $2 million on travel and meals, and that doesn't include spending for any dependents who attend.

Switching to a four-year conference could affect the Independence economy. Those who attend each World Conference spend more than $1.5 million during the weeklong stay, business leaders say.

There is strong church opposition to the change. Some church conservatives are leery that lengthening the time between World Conferences gives top church leaders too free a hand in running the democratic-minded church.

"Any time you take away opportunity for voice and vote, you violate the liberty of the Saints," said Patrick McKay Sr. of Independence.

Some Independence churches have submitted their own legislation, asking that the two-year World Conferences continue.

Top church leaders have favored the four-year conference as a means of enhancing the participation by delegates from the 34 nations other than the United States and Canada.

In North America, church membership has declined while church growth in its mission fields has been steady. "The church is changing so much, soon its (membership) center will be outside the U.S.," Mr. Noffsinger said.

One of those foreign church leaders is Hideyuki Handa, who lives in Toyko and in February became the national minister for the RLDS Church in Japan.

Through a translator, he said he has belonged to the church for 12 years and this is the first World Conference he has attended.

"Preparations for people coming from foreign lands, finding homes for everyone to stay in, finding translators, if all that is done every two years it's a lot of work," he said.

If the four-year conference is approved, the church does intend to hold other events during the interval that emphasize education and fellowship for its 160,000 members in North America over church legislation. The worldwide church membership is 230,000.

A workshop on church expansion and Sunday school is tentatively scheduled for 1986 in Independence.

WHO'S Running for WHAT?

Dearest Paloma,

I would like to run for the office of Chaplain for 1984-85. It would be an honor and a privilege to have this responsibility.

I feel I am qualified to serve you, because of my loving concern for each of you. Spiritual development is as important as all ways of growing. I am friendly and you are welcome in my room for a listening ear, to crack a joke, helpful advice or a prayer. I will be sensitive to your needs.

I will strive to make next year one of the great years in Paloma history.

Love,
Beth K.

Dear Paloma,

I am writing to let you know I'm running for the position of Crescent for 1984-85. I enjoy meeting new people and helping to make them feel at home. I am always there to listen, to laugh, to be a friend. I feel my year as Chaplain has helped me to learn to respond to people's needs. As Crescent, I will try and help Paloma to have a fantastic year that new house members, as well as old, can look back on with fun memories. I would be honored to serve Paloma next year in the job of Crescent.

Love,
Susan

ENTRE NOUS

Dear Paloma,
I am writing this note to inform you that I am again running for the Office of Social-Chairperson / C.O.S.A. rep. I would be extremely honored to hold this offic.
Next year - I will be able to attend the COSA rep orientations which - if I'm voted in - would make me a more effective socialchairperson.
I looking forward to next year with great enthusiasm! (Hopefully my my spelling will cimprove somewhat so I can be a more effective sign maker! HA)
Next year I want to delegate the willing freshmen + other members of the hall into jobs in which they could help me with the roll of social rep.
I would appriciate your vote.
Thanks!
Di

FRIENDS

Packing up the dreams of God planted
In the fertile soil of you
Can't believe the hopes He's granted
There's a chapter in your life is through

But we'll keep you close as always
It won't even seem you've gone
Cause our hearts in big and small ways
Will keep the love that keeps us strong

(Chorus)
And friends are friends forever
If the Lord's the Lord of them
And a friend will not say "never"
Cause the welcome will not end
Though it's hard to let you go
In the Father's hands we know
That a lifetime's not too long to live as friends

With the faith and love God's given
Springing from the hope we know
We will pray the joy you'll live in
Is the strength that now you show

But we'll keep you close as always
It won't even seem you've gone
Cause our hearts in big and small ways
Will keep the love that keeps us strong

(Chorus)

(Chorus)

(Repeat Chorus)
